

THE BOUNTY HUNT

STAR WARS™ CELEBRATION VI

T8. The Box

Count Dooku has a particularly challenging target for you. In order to prove your worth before you can accept this mission, he wants you to join a team of bounty hunters in the Box. Find the names of your fellow recruits for the Box by using the list below. Instead of a normal word find where words are hidden in straight lines, these words will turn corners to form boxes, with each box surrounding one letter - when the bounty hunters are working together. Teamwork is important, so all the boxes will share at least one letter with a neighboring box. Because he wants the mission to succeed so he can get paid, Cad Bane says to find him in one of the corners!
